The Lewis & Clark Trail Heritage Foundation is the advocate, interpreter, and protector of the Trail. With chapters across the country, it preserves, promotes, and teaches the story of the Lewis & Clark Expedition. The Oregon Chapter brings together people statewide and beyond who are interested in events, field trips, scholarship, and educational opportunities relating to the 1803-1806 Corps of Discovery.

We also encourage your support of the National Lewis & Clark Trail Heritage Foundation

CHAPTER BOARD

Our chapter is guided by a board of hard-working Lewis & Clark enthusiasts. The officers comprise the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. The nine directors serve three-year terms. Ex officio members are the superintendent of the Lewis & Clark National Historical Park, the archivist at Lewis & Clark College, and the chapter's immediate past president.

OR-LCTHF.ORG

Our information-packed website is a treasure-trove of Lewis & Clark and chapter materials, a full listing of our events and special projects, a photo gallery of our activities with thousands of images, and a library of our publications including our current and past newsletters. Take the Oregon Lewis & Clark Quiz

LEARN THE ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS LIKE THESE...

- 1 What members of the Corps of Discovery are buried in Oregon?
- 2 How did the Expedition celebrate Christmas at Fort Clatsop?
- 3 What was unusual about the winter weather in 1806 at Fort Clatsop?
- 4 What tool used by the Corps of Discovery was found on a Columbia River island in the late 1800s and is now held at the Oregon Historical Society?
- 5 Who was the French-speaking “break dancer” who helped the Corps on the Missouri and later moved to Oregon?

EDUCATION

The Oregon Chapter encourages Scouts to earn our special patch by learning more about Lewis & Clark’s time in our area. Requirements are listed on our website. If your school or group is interested in a presentation about the Corps of Discovery and the tribes they met in our area, contact our Chapter President.

EXPLORE MORE

Explore More is a program offered to members and includes field trips, lectures, and “hands-on” activities relating to the Expedition and the heritage of the State of Oregon. Visit our Oregon Chapter’s website (www.or-lcthf.org) for the current listing of chapter sponsored activities. We are always searching for places to visit and activities to sponsor.
